Gospel Notes

The last Sunday of the year is always celebrated as the Feast of Christ the King and in each year of the liturgical cycle we are invited to ponder some aspect of Christ's rule over the church and indeed all creation. In year C we have been reading the gospel of Luke over many Sundays and have been privileged to see how the great mystery of God's universal love and mercy is revealed in the person of Jesus. It is appropriate then on this feast to focus on Jesus on the cross granting pardon to the repentant thief. For Luke this aspect of the kingdom of God has been central: Jesus has come to bring the healing forgiveness of God to all who seek it.

Reflection

'If you are the king of the Jews then save yourself.' This cry of mockery from the crowds on Calvary is worthy of our reflection on a feast such as today's. It is precisely because he is the king of the Jews, and indeed king of the whole world, that Jesus does not save himself. He is more concerned to save others. This he does, not by the majestic use of power or a dramatic manifestation of his glory, but rather through a humble giving of himself in which the mercy of God is offered to everyone in an act of overwhelming generosity. Today we celebrate a king whose wealth lies in his love for all, and whose authority is exercised through service of those who are considered the least important of all. Jesus does not seek servants who grovel before his throne in the hope of being granted favours, he is looking for disciples who can stand before the cross and see there their own worth and the worth of every other human being, and who will be prepared to do what they can to uphold the dignity of their brothers and sisters.

GLENAVY & KILLEAD PARISH PRAYER FRIENDS NETWORK

"Share each other's troubles and problems, and so obey our Lord's command." Gal 6:2
Prayer is at the heart of our relationship with God. It is the foundation of our faith. As a parish we are stronger when we are praying for the needs of each other.
We want to set up a Parish Prayer Network and we need two or three parishioners to help us with this venture. To find out more information contact Fionnuala on 07702073895 or email the parish office glenavy@downandconnor.org with contact details and we will contact you.
