GOSPEL

This gospel text is almost the same one as used on the Sixth Sunday of Easter and it presents us with John's understanding of the unique and vital role played by the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer. The entire section of John's gospel known as the 'Last Discourse' (chapters 13-17) is presented as a kind of farewell speech or even last will and testament. In it the evangelist explores who Jesus really is and how we, his followers, are united to him and draw life from him. To do this he uses a couple of key images: one is the dwelling place (v.14), the other is the vine (v.15). It is the Spirit in us who allows us to explore these ideas and to deepen our understanding of the profound mystery that has been revealed through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

REFLECTION

The feast of Pentecost brings to a close the season of Easter because the gift of the Spirit is the inevitable outcome of the death and resurrection of Jesus. The church understood clearly that what happened to Jesus on Easter Sunday was not just an amazing miracle to prove that he really was the Son of God. It was rather the next step in God's desire to heal, once and for all, the relationship between himself and a broken humanity. Now the outpouring of the Spirit of Jesus means that our relationship with God is fundamentally transformed. So let's celebrate of our new life in the Spirit and the birthday of the church as the new people of God.

You are warmly invited to LOUGH DERG DAY OF FRIENDSHIP AND PRAYER Wednesday 15th May 2019. 10:30am – 3:00pm. For our Day of Friendship and Prayer this year, today's growing challenges around homelessness, migration and social exclusion have led us to invite Fr Peter McVerry as our Guest Speaker who will address the topic: 'The Social Gospel – Meeting Christ on the Margins' Lough Derg's geographical location in a marginal landscape is part of what enabled it to become the place that it has been for centuries: a place of retreat and reflection, a place to review our journey in life and to find new and gospel perspective in personal terms and in our engagement with society around us. Followers of Jesus, who could say of himself that 'the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head,' are welcome to come, along with their friends from across the denominational divides, to share what promises to be an engaging and challenging Day of Friendship and Prayer. Fr La Flynn, Prior Admission €25 / £22 Advance booking is essential. Tel. 071 9861518 (from NI 0035371 9861518) Email. info@loughderg.org
