Solemnity of All Saints

(a Holy Day of Obligation)

Friday 1st November

Vigil Mass Thursday Mater Dei 7pm.

Friday St Joseph's .9.30am

There are some saints, like Therese or Bernadette, who seem almost to have been born saints. They come to relative perfection in a short time and leave prematurely, having blazed a trail through their short lives. Others live long lives of Christian toil and die full of faith and good works, people like Mother Teresa, Edmund Rice and countless Christian men and women whom we know.

There are others, like Matt Talbot, who lose their way and manage to find it again. These people make a radical and dramatic break with their past and rediscover the riches of the faith they once were offered and which they had passed over in favour of the pleasures of this world

Others still, like Paul or Augustine, discover Christ and make a dramatic commitment to the Gospel. These people progress somewhat quickly and become zealous in their pursuit of virtue and holiness, seeing the faith with the eyes of the convert rather than the tired perceptions of the cradle Catholic.

For most of us, though, the Christian life and the struggle for holiness is a long, slow struggle, maintained through failure and through forgiveness, and kept alive by God's grace. Cardinal Newman said that to live is to change and to be perfect is to have changed often. Change is a difficult and sometimes painful, but to change and development and growth in maturity is the path of holiness.

The celebration of the saints reminds us of the nature of true holiness and its many charisms. It may recall us to a holiness which is a wholesome and real, and call us to purity of heart. It can awaken in us the desire to imitate the saints in their following of Christ.

REMEMBERING OF DECEASEDNOVEMBER DEAD LISTS

Throughout the month of November the Church traditionally remembers and prays for all those who have died. A November Dead List is a list of the names of deceased relatives and friends for whom you would like Mass offered during November. Like all acts of remembrance, compiling a November Dead List is an act of charity to the faithful departed from those who are still able to assist them. The sheets on which to compile the list and accompanying envelopes are available in the Church Porches. A voluntary offering may be included for the support of the priests who will celebrate the Masses. Return the envelope either in the collection basket or in the box in the Sanctuary. The names of the deceased will be placed in the Sanctuary where they will remain for the Month of November. Mass will be offered each day specifically for all whose names appear on the lists, that they may attain what they long for, eternal rest in God's presence
