GOSPEL NOTES:

The gospel of John is divided into two parts and with this text we approach the end of part one, sometimes known as the Book of Signs. Chapter 12 forms a link between the end of Jesus' public life and the beginning of his passion. The scene is Jerusalem which is full of pilgrims arriving for the feast of Passover. Many of these are Greek-speaking Jews arriving from all around the Roman empire and their request to see Jesus is a reminder that 'seeing' in the fourth gospel is another way of speaking of 'believing in'. On the cross Jesus is drawing all people to himself and inviting a faith response to the love of God that he has manifested. His death is like a seed of grain falling into the ground where it perishes but out of it comes growth and a rich harvest. This is the way of love and all who would follow Jesus must walk this path. By so doing they participate in God's ultimate victory over evil.

REFLECTION

Jeremiah looked forward to a day when we would all know God, 'the least no less than the greatest'. Some six hundred years later what Jeremiah was speaking about unfolded in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. With the pilgrims in the gospel we are invited to say: 'We wish to see Jesus' and to recognise that in the events of Holy Week our request is granted. Now once again Jesus is revealed to us, not as a distant figure from the past who suffered for doing good, but as the living one who even now is calling us to new life. In him we are being offered nothing less than intimate friendship with God. Let us pray with Jesus, 'aloud and in silent tears' that we will be humble enough to accept this transforming gift.

RESUMPTION OF THE CELEBRATION OF PUBLIC MASS

The celebration of public Mass will recommence on Friday 26 March with the 9.30am Mass in St Joseph's.

Weekend Masses on Palm Sunday 27/28 March will therefore be at the usual times. We will need to continue with the practice of booking seats for each Mass and will also need teams of parishioners to greet and seat those who attend. These 'Co-vid stewards' will also help sanitise the church after Mass.

We must have volunteers to fill these roles if we are to celebrate Mass safely. Mass cannot be provided unless stewards are present.

In particular we need volunteers for the 12 noon Mass in St Joseph's. If you would be willing help please contact the parish office as soon as possible this week.

Booking for weekend Mass.

In order to attend weekend Masses it is necessary to book a seat(s). Please telephone the Parish Office on Thursday or Friday only between 10am -12noon.
