ANNUAL MASS FOR BEREAVED

The annual Mass for those who have been bereaved since November 2020 will be celebrated this year at 7.00pm in Mater Dei Church on Thursday 18 November 2021.

Given the limited seating available as a consequence of social distancing requirements, you must have booked a seat(s) through the parish office before attending.

The roll call of the deceased will be accompanied with the lighting of a candle by a parishioner on behalf of each of the bereaved families.

The Mass will be live streamed on <https://www.churchservices.tv/materdeicrumlin>

Gospel

The last chapter of Mark before the events of the Easter is sometime called a 'little apocalypse'. Aware of their Jewish roots, the first Christians made use of apocalyptic writing to present the victory of Jesus over sin and death. Their belief was that the resurrection had ushered in the last days and that Jesus would return soon. Therefore there was an urgency to their preaching of the gospel and we get a flavour of that from this reading. As we approach the end of another liturgical year, the church invites us to reflect on the fact that we are moving towards an ultimate goal, and that no matter how bad things may get God has triumphed and will triumph again. This type of literature is hard for us to relate to as it seems rather dark and fantastic but it is a literature of hope and that is its perennial value.

Reflection

The people for whom both our readings for today were written were probably spending much time thinking about the future and wondering where was God to be found in the violence and bloodshed that was going on around them. In these communities were two people whose names we do not know who had a vibrant vision of hope and they made it their business to share it with those around them. 'Our God will not fail us so do not give up in the face of hopelessness or despair' was the gist of their message. This is still the heart of the gospel message, so let's ask or the faith to believe it and the courage to share it.

REMEMBERING THE DECEASED, NOVEMBER DEAD LISTS

Throughout the month of November, the Church traditionally remembers and prays for all those who have died. A November Dead List is a list of the names of deceased relatives and friends for whom you would like Mass offered during November. Like all acts of remembrance, compiling a November Dead List is an act of charity to the faithful departed from those who are still able to assist them. The sheets on which to compile the list and accompanying envelopes are available in the Church Porches. A voluntary offering may be included for the support of the priests who will celebrate the Masses. Return the envelope either in the collection basket or in the box in the Sanctuary. The list of the deceased will be placed in the Sanctuary where they will remain for the Month of November. Mass will be offered each day specifically for all whose names appear on the lists, that they may attain what they long for, eternal rest in God's presence. The blank sheets and envelopes will be located in the porch of each church from Sunday 24 October.

The cameras are live 24/7 and are focused on the Sanctuaries and first three seats at the front of each Church. To access the broadcasts, go to www.churchservices.tv select 'Churches, 'N. Ireland', and 'Antrim', then look for an image of 'Mater Dei, Crumlin' or 'Glenavy, St Joseph's'. Click on the image. All Masses are broadcast at the usual times. Mater Dei Church: Saturday Vigil 6.00pm, and Sunday 10.45 am. St Joseph's: Sunday 9.30am and 12.00 noon.
