Sacrament and gift

Many people have memories of the Corpus Christ procession when the monstrance with the Blessed Sacrament was brought around the parish. All groups in the parish were represented. Children scattered petals before the host and houses were decorated. The meaning of the feast was to bring the Lord into the streets of his people and to appreciate the gift he gives us of himself in the Eucharist. This procession still takes part in many places.

On Holy Thursday we also celebrate the Eucharist, but in another way, It is more of the sacrifice of Jesus on Calvary. We unite ourselves with his offering that brought him to death and look forward to the resurrection when the risen Lord would be present in many ways among people, including in the form and shape of bread and wine.

On the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, the emphasis is more on gift than on sacrifice.

This is what he wishes to leave us as a gift forever. It is the way he could give himself forever in a very close way, so that this is his gift of 'food for the journey' of bread and wine.

On the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, the emphasis is more on gift than on sacrifice.

This is what he wishes to leave us as a gift forever. It is the way he could give himself forever.

We need this gift. We need to know certainly that God is close with us in life, and the Eucharist at Mass gives us this certainty. We need to know that God is really present in our lives, and we know this in the real presence of the Eucharist.

Lord in this Eucharist today I welcome you into my life;
help me to live like you and love like you. Amen.

Anniversary Mass There are many requests for anniversary Masses at weekends for deceased relatives and friends. The reduced number of Masses means that it is often not possible to assign the date requested and indeed the celebration may be many weeks later. Preference will continue to be given to Month's Minds and 1st Anniversaries, however, in a number of Parishes the practice of sharing other anniversaries with other families has been introduced successfully. When you contact the parish office to arrange for an anniversary Mass you will be asked if you would be willing to share the intention with others. Your cooperation and understanding would be welcomed.

Primary 7 Please keep the P7 girls and boys of Ballymacrickey and St Joseph's in your prayers as they leave their first schools and embark on the next stage of their lives.

Web Camera's Mater Dei Church and St. Joseph's are both equipped with web-cameras. All Liturgies are broadcast. The cameras are live 24/7 and are focused on the Sanctuaries and first three seats at the front of each Church. To access the broadcasts, go to: www.churchservices.tv/stjosephglenavy or www.churchservices.tv/materdeicrumlin. The web-cams enable us to attend Mass, however they do not allow us to receive the Eucharist, the Body of Christ. When possible, we should attend Mass in the Church whenever our circumstances permit in order to receive Holy Communion.
